

Clutha Development Membership

Join the organisation working for Clutha District businesses.

Clutha Development is the Economic Development Agency, and the Regional Tourism Organisation for the Clutha District.

Our focus is on developing and supporting initiatives that will make the Clutha District a place where people love to live, work, invest and visit.

As the Economic Development Agency, Clutha Development is the link between you, local government and business activity in the Clutha District with access to the information, contacts and resources that your business needs to succeed.

We invite you to be a part of a progressive economic development agency, delivering prosperity to Clutha District businesses and the community. Working together we can continue to make the Clutha District a great place to work, live, invest and visit.

As a member you will have access to:

- Voting rights to elect members to the executive board
- Invitation to hold a position on the executive board
- Recruitment support
- Discounted rates for training workshops
- Discounted rates for events and forums
- Tourism product marketing (additional fees may apply)
- Brochure display in the Clutha i-SITE and Catlins Information Centre for tourism businesses
- Opportunity to showcase your business through our digital marketing channels
